NOTE ON THE DATA

1. By its decision 81/34 of 27 June 1981, the Governing Council requested the Administrator to continue to provide data on the magnitude and composition of technical cooperation activities funded by organizations of the United Nations system other than the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP). The present report fulfills this responsibility for 1993. Besides data on agency, regular and extrabudgetary expenditures/contributions, the report also contains, for completeness, data on UNDP, the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the World Food Programme (WFP), and (technical cooperation expenditure only) the World Bank and the International Development Association (IDA).

2. The new definition for non-UNDP resources proposed in document DP/1989/60 has been adopted in the present report. Essentially, the old definition of non-UNDP resources has been adjusted to exclude expenditures against UNDP-administered funds since such expenditures are obviously controlled and disbursed by UNDP and are thus technical cooperation expenditures financed by UNDP. In document DP/1990/74, existing data was modified to conform with this new definition for the period 1980-1989. All data series are from 1980-1993 are consistent with this new definition.

3. The present report is based on data supplied by participating and executing agencies, including the World Bank/IDA. The raw data for 1993 have been checked for consistency and accuracy, classified, aggregated and are presented in tables 1 to 10. The tables are arranged in a specific order: tables 1 through 7 are concerned with technical cooperation expenditures; tables 8 and 9 record contributions; and table 10 summarizes total expenditures for that portion of the United Nations system covered by the report. (For a discussion of the terminology and charts depicting the breakdown of contributions and expenditure, see DP/1994/40/Add.1. In more detail, table 1 is intended as a summary, by agency, of grant technical cooperation expenditures by agencies, including UNFPA, and UNDP (central resources and administered funds) while table 2 shows the same data but distributed by sectors. Table 3, an extremely aggregative and important table, brings together total non-UNDP financed technical cooperation expenditures: regular budget expenditures plus agency extrabudgetary expenditures plus expenditures by UNFPA. Several features of this table are worth observing: (a) expenditures are classified according to sectors; (b) for each agency, expenditures are distributed according to type of expenditure: regular budget (A); United Nations system extrabudgetary sources other than UNDP (B1); non-United Nations system multilateral sources (B2); bilateral sources channelled through the United Nations system (C1); and unilateral self-supporting sources (C2); and (c) expenditures by UNFPA, all of which are taken to be B1 expenditures, are distributed according to executing agency. This means that the reported B1 expenditures of agencies are augmented by the amount of UNFPA expenditures for which they have been responsible (as reported by UNFPA). As a result, UNFPA itself is only responsible for a small portion of its own expenditure. For example, in 1993, UNFPA reported total expenditures of$134.2 million but it was directly responsible for only $49.9 million.

4. Tables 4 through 6 amplifies on the "sources" of table 3. More specifically, table 4 breaks down regular budget expenditures (A) by country and agency. Obviously, the grand total of this table is the same as that shown in the total column of line A at the end of table 3. Table 5 contains the distribution of expenditures stemming from United Nations system other than UNDP (B1) by country and agencies. The total in this table also agrees with that shown in the total column of line B1 at the end of table 3. Table 6 is concerned with expenditures funded from non-United Nations system multilateral sources (B2), also classified by country and agency. Again, the total of this table equals that shown in the total column of line B2 at the end of table 3. The country-agency breakdown of bilateral resources channelled through the United Nations system (C1) is given in table 7; the total of this table is the same as that in the total column, line C1, at the end of table 3. Finally, the country-agency distribution of unilateral expenditure (C2) is shown by the final column of table 10. Again, the total of this table agrees with that in line C2 of table 3.

5. Table 8 relates to contributions received for the funding of the extrabudgetary expenditures of agencies, organized under the following headings: unilateral and bilateral sources (country or territory and non-governmental organizations) and multilateral sources (United Nations system and non-United Nations system). Contributions received by agencies to fund "self-supporting" technical cooperation expenditures are presented in table 9. Finally, table 10 consolidates expenditures by agencies, including UNDP (central and administered funds), UNFPA, UNICEF, WFP and the World Bank/IDA so as to present a quick view of "total" expenditures flowing through the United Nations system during 1991. Total is in inverted commas to indicate the fact that the table does not reflect the real magnitude of expenditure of the United Nations system since data on the expenditures (primarily operational) of some other agencies are not included.

6. Four cautionary notes should be heeded in the use of the data. The first is related to the budget period of agencies. All agencies operate on an annual budget except WHO and UNICEF, which have a biennial budgeting horizon. This, however, is not a problem with UNICEF, which continues to submit expenditures on an annual basis. WHO, on the other hand, produces estimated expenditure for the first year of the biennium while the statement for the second year of the biennium includes expenditure incurred in that year plus adjustments to expenditures in the previous year. In practice, it turns out that expenditures in the final year of the biennium have been much higher than in the first year of the biennium. To deal with this and thus to avoid huge jumps in WHO expenditure from year to year, the approach adopted is to approportion total expenditure equally over both years of the biennium. One consequence of this is that there is no practical way of updating the detailed breakdown of expenditure in the first year of the biennium because (a) the report for that year has already been finalized (i.e., it is the previous year's report) and (b) the statistical annex of all reports, which contain desegregated data in some detail, has a coverage of only one year.

7. The second point concerns the type of expenditure data used by the report. In general, the data refer specifically to programme expenditure, which is net of administrative and support costs. The only exception to this rule is WHO: its data is inclusive of support, but not administrative, costs. Third, for the third straight year, ECA has advised that its unilateral "self-supporting" contributions constitute, in effect, a pooled fund, representing the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development (UNTFAD). In view of the pool-accounting nature of the resources, it is difficult to identify contributions of any specific country intended to fund projects only in that particular country. In short, in this case the term "self-supporting" contributions/expenditure deviates from its normal meaning. Finally, data reported by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural organization (UNESCO) under its regular budget expenditure represent expenditure incurred under that organization's participation programme, a practice which began in 1982.

In keeping with the new definition of non-UNDP-financed technical cooperation expenditures, all expenditures incurred by UNDP (central resources and administered funds) are excluded.

b/ Includes self-supporting expenditures (C2). See table 3 for a summary by agency and sectors and table 10 for a breakdown by country. Note that this is in fact the sum of B1+B2+C1+C2 (tables 5 through 7 and last column of table 10) minus UNFPA.

c/ Provisional data covering indicative planning figures (IPFs), Special Programme Resources (SPR), Special Measures Fund for the Least Developed Countries (SMF/LDC), Special Industrial Services (SIS), cost-sharing and trust funds established by the Administrator, where applicable.

d/ The regular and extrabudgetary expenditures for WHO have been modified to reflect actual expenditures. See note on data for details.

e/ This amount represent GCCC for which no agency breakdown is available.

a/ As a result of adjustment to WHO expenditures, resulting from the biennium nature of its budgetary process, the total for the health sector during 1990 was: RBE-$209.923 million; EBE - $306.993 million. The data in document DP/1993/58/Add.1, table 2, should be used with this in mind.

b/ This column is the sum of (a) regular budgets (b) extrabudgetary sources other than UNDP, UNFPA and UNDP-administered funds and (c) UNFPA. In keeping with the new definition of non-UNDP-financed technical cooperation expenditures, all expenditures incurred by UNDP (central resources and administered funds) are excluded.

c/ Provisional data covering IPFs, SPR, SNF/LDC, SIS, cost-sharing and trust funds established by the Administrator, where applicable.

Note to table 3

This is an overall summary table of non-UNDP financed technical cooperation expenditures. The right-hand column (labeled "Agency") shows the distribution of non-financed technical cooperation expenditure by budget source (A, B1, B2, C1 and C2). The sectoral amounts corresponding to each agency and budget source can be located quickly by plotting the appropriate grid. Note further, that "A" corresponds to "Funded by Regular Budgets" of table 1 and 2, and B1+B2+C1+C2 correspond to "Funded by extrabudgetary sources other than UNDP, UNFPA and UNDP-administered funds" plus UNFPA. For more detailed breakdown of each budget source, see tables 4 through 7.
